

Melick, Kim

Director of Operations

A North Carolina native, Kim has made her home in the Upstate for 25 years. She is a graduate of Appalachian State University and daily demonstrates a strong commitment to our families and a very genuine desire to help others. Kim has a love for the outdoors and enjoys spending time there with her two children, especially during warm weather. Her welcoming personality makes Kim feel that she never meets a stranger.

